Review: Compilation of the decisions of the Central-South China Bureau of the Chinese Communist Party and the Kwangtung Provincial Land-Reform Committee regarding the continued implementation of land reform and the problems of differentiating class status in rural areas. Gives an editorial of the Canton Nan-fang Jih-pao urging the completion of land reform in Kwangtung Province before the spring of 1953. Directives are aimed at cadres who are negligent in classifying peasants, since the peasants' status will determine the treatment they receive in the land-reform program.
